NEW YORK GALLERIES: OPENING, CLOSING

This fall will see some new projects in New York and the closing of one Lower East Side gallery. Sandra Gering Inc. is a new venture by the dealer who has been partners with Javier López in Gering & López since 2006 in the Crown Building, at 730 Fifth Avenue, representing artists including William Anastasi, Karim Rashid and Nancy Dwyer. Gering's new business will open in November at 14 East 63rd St. "Javier opened a beautiful space in Madrid three years ago, and our partnership is ending amicably," Gering told A.i.A. by phone. Gering's first show will be new works by John F. Simon Jr., whose show "Points, Lines, and Colors in Succession" is at the Phillips Collection, Washington, D.C. (through Feb. 9, 2014). "We hope to open by Nov. 21," Gering told A.i.A.
